Mission Honduras International operates within the public trust and is committed to fairness and integrity in the conduct of all its activities.

Members of the Board of Directors must represent unconflicted loyalty to the interest of Mission Honduras International. This accountability supercedes any conflicting loyalties such as that to advocacy or interest groups, business or personal interests, or paid or voluntary service to other organizations.

Financial transactions between the Mission Honduras International and members of the Board and their family members who are disqualified persons are prohibited with the exception of the payment of necessary and reasonable staff salary and the reimbursement of legitimate expenses incurred as a result of Mission operations.

Members of the Board are committed to communicate fully with Mission Honduras International regarding any relationship or commitment that could affect the impartial fulfillment of their role in the affairs of Mission Honduras International.

Members of the Board make the following disclosure of their relationship with non-profit organizations that have been grantees or that may seek to be a grantee of Mission Honduras International
